UK-BASED SINGER/SONGWRITER AND ORIGINAL IRON MAIDEN MEMBER TONY MOORE TO RELEASE THE SINGLE “REMEMBER ME” FROM HIS CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED ALBUM ENTITLED “AWAKE”

On 14th February, Singer/Songwriter Tony Moore Will Release “Remember Me” Which Will Be The First Single From The AWAKE Album/Show That He Has Been Touring For The Past Few Years

FEBRUARY 5th, 2025 - (London, UK). Singer/Songwriter Tony Moore is set to release a new single titled “REMEMBER ME” which will be the lead track from his album ‘AWAKE’. The song is sung from the point of a young 13-year-old Tony Moore looking at his journey in life through the music business to the present.

Tony says “This is probably the most deeply personal and self-reflective song I have written; yet, it also has universal touch points, as I sing about a young person's dreams as opposed to the realities of what their life has actually been...”

In late 2021 Tony wrote a concept album called AWAKE which looked at a mix of themes including the madness that the world descended into in 2020, his own musical life journey, in addition to dealing with his Mother's onset of dementia and how he moved in to look after.'

Since June 2021, Tony has been performing AWAKE as an immersive live show to great acclaim and throughout 2024 he has toured as the special guest opening act for Steve Harris (Iron Maiden) and his other band British Lion as they have piggy backed the Iron Maiden tour around the world, playing in countries as diverse as Australia, NZ, Japan, North and South America where his show has had an extremely positive reception from the international audiences.

Steve Harris is not only been a big believer in AWAKE (he is the executive producer) but in an interview with Classic Rock Magazine, he even went so far as to say "If Tony played guitar back then the way he does now, he'd probably still be in the band."

To support the single release, Tony created a unique and highly original video that follows his journey in the music business with rare images and pictures.

Tony Moore is a multi instrumentalist, singer/songwriter and highly experienced performer whose eclectic career in the entertainment business tells a unique story. From being an original member of Iron Maiden to playing piano with Meatloaf to having an Xmas hit with his own band in Holland to joining Cutting Crew as keyboard player in the late 80's and touring the world with the iconic hit song "(I Just) Died In Your Arms Tonight" Tony has been involved in many pivotal moments in the world of music.
